

6. Members Who Encourage Inappropriate Non Member Behavior Policy

Given that club events and activities are a privilege and not a right, the club through its officers, reserves the right to ask members who violate club policies or rules for non members to stop this behavior. Failure to do so will result in Board action against the member, which could include revoking the membership and returning their dues.

Board of Directors
Quad City Singles, Inc.
July 9, 2007